December Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Connect With The Ascended Masters

Another group of Divine helpers is the ascended masters. These souls include an enormous collection of divinities, gods, goddesses, deities, and devas from many religions and cultures.

Unlike the majority of the archangels, many ascended masters have had the human experience as prophets, teachers and healers. Jesus, Saint Francis, Buddha and Moses are just a few of these masters.

Like the angels, your religion (if any) makes no difference to the ascended masters. What is important and what they see are your true intentions and your openness to ask for and allow help.

Many masters have a particular area of expertise. For instance, Saint Francis is a great helper to our animal friends and the humans who love them; the goddess Aphrodite is known for assisting with romantic issues including marriage and commitment.

Ascended masters often appear during readings along with your guardian angels, Archangels and other loved ones. They are happy to help you with any issue that will give you peace. Like other divine helpers and you, they are part of our Creator and it is safe to work with them.

Your Angels' Gift Wish List

What gift can you give to your angels (and yourself)? Here' are the top items on their wish list: Fear, unforgiveness, guilt, shame, past painful experiences, limiting beliefs. Basically anything lowering your vibration and Divine light!

They'd like to hear your wish list when you ask them to receive your gift. For example, I give you this shame and ask that you replace it with love and compassion. Thank you!

Give Yourself a Gift—Fearlessness

What would you do if you weren't afraid? Are you willing to try an experiment for one month with Archangel Michael?

One of Michael's specialties is overcoming negativity. It is not necessary that you believe in Michael, the angels or God to participate in the experiment. Simply substitute a higher power in Michael's place, even if that is your dog.

For the first step, gather some small pieces of paper and a box or container of some sort. Using a piece of paper for each fear, and using as many pieces as needed, write each fear on a separate piece of paper and put all of them into the box. Put the box in an out of reach location. This could be out in the garage, on top of the refrigerator or in a closet. It should not be visible.

Next go to a quiet spot where you won't be interrupted. Visualize Archangel Michael in whatever form comes to you. See yourself giving Michael your fears for safekeeping for one month. If you wish to visualize the scraps of paper or symbols of your fears, that is fine. If you want to embellish your visualization, imagine Michael showing up with a dump truck or whatever large container you can imagine. Add whatever details come to you.

Now for the challenge. During the next month, do not allow yourself to think or give ANY energy whatsoever to your fears. Remember, you gave them to Michael. If you find yourself worrying anyway, go to your container and retrieve the piece of paper with that particular fear. As long as you are thinking about the fear hold the piece of paper. When you are done, return the piece of paper to your container. Repeat the visualization of giving Michael that fear to hold.

During the next month ask your guardian angels to help you keep your focus trained on your desires. Just as you embellished in your visualization with Michael, be very specific about your desires. See them, feel them, hear them and think about them in as much detail as you can.

With your focus on what you desire instead of fear, you will be amazed what occurs. Michael says fear has a very low vibration and is not a match to what you are trying to create... unless that is more fear.

Next month Michael will give us the final steps of this experiment. Enjoy your gift of living fear free!
